2009 Level IV-V Supplemental Exam

1. [Rule 3.3 (a), Situation 3] Can a player on the ice carry two player's sticks so that she can give one to a teammate who has lost or broken her stick? SRD
2. [Rule 9.2 (a), Situation 8] In cases where a single Minor penalty has been assessed and the penalized player is guilty of Unsportsmanlike Conduct, or a team mate on the ice is guilty of Unsportsmanlike Conduct, officials are encouraged to assess what penalty or penalties? SRD
3. [Rule 5.6 (f) Situation 1] A player on Team A is assessed a cross-checking penalty at 8:44 of the 2nd period. After serving his penalty he returns to the ice and assists on a goal for his team. At the 2:15 mark of the same period he is assessed a slashing minor. At this time the timekeeper informs the referee that this is the player's 4th stick penalty and he should have been assessed a Game Ejection after his cross-checking penalty at 8:44. SRD
4. [Rule 4.1 Situation 4] An incident occurs off the ice surface and it not witnessed by any on-ice or appointed standby official, but is reported to the Referee. SRD
5. [Rule 3.6(g), Situation 23] A player is wearing the mouth guard in a manner that is careless or clearly not within the intended guidelines. SRD
6. [Rule 4.10(c), Situation 6] The goaltender is on the ice, but away from his goal crease. A player of the opposing team takes possession and control of the puck and actually shoots it towards the open goal. As the puck is about to enter the open goal, a defending player knocks the net off its moorings. SRD
7. [Rule 3.7 b & e] A player is identified to be wearing a sweater that has been modified with Velcro tear away sleeves. What procedure should be followed in dealing with this? SRD
8. [Rule 5.3(d) Sit. 6] In a Jr. game a Linesman is about to report a penalty for High Sticking but before he does so, the offending team scores a goal. SRD.
9. [Rule 4.9(a) Sit. 7] On a Penalty Shot, as the player approaches the goal, the goaltender poke checks the puck. The puck bounces past the goaltender toward the net. The player regains the puck and directs it into the goal. SRD – (include Ruling)
10. [Rule 6.7 (c) – Sit. 9] Two players are fighting on the ice, close to the players' bench and a player on the bench intervenes in the fight and becomes a participant. SRD
